

Please do not destroy the no-call list Wisconsin currently uses.
It has been a great relief to finally be free of the torment of telemarketing.

If this law is weakened or abolished I will get a cell phone and eliminate my home phone service.

It is one of the very few pieces of legislation that has done the public good and is almost universally appreciated.